Identified Assets - Ranked		Identified Barriers - Ranked
Community gardens	8	Transportation
Farmers market	4	Healthy food is not affordable
Local produce vendors	4	EBT (food stamps) not accepted at farmers market
Food pantries	3	3 Fast food marketing crowds out healthy options
Local food retailers	3	3 Food pantries don't provide fresh frood
Public transit (SCAT)	3	3 Lack of knowledge about how to prepare healthy foods
Walmart	3	Lack of knowledge of gardening
Food share programs	2	Lack of knowledge of healthy eating
Gleaning program	2	Vandalism
Help available for those who want to learn	2	Access to funding
Residents who grow and share food	2	Access to information where to find healthy food
Sarasota County Schools Food and Nutrition Services	2	Bureaucracy
Access to expertise to initiate farmers market		Economic volatility
Available land		Unable to achieve economy of scale with produce
Children who love to grow things		Farmers markets far away
Commercial kitchen at Robert L Taylor		Free food has reduced the personal value of eating healthy
Community willingness to improve health		High crime and drug use
Florida House		Lack of exposure to healthy foods
Grocery stores		Lack of interest in healthy foods
Healthy cooking programs		Lack of knowledge of portion control
Healthy food programs		Limited land for gardening
Ideal climate for growing		Local produce vendors don't sell at consistent times/places
Jail gardening program		Local retailers lack knowledge and support
Latent growing skill among people of color	Latent growing skill among people of color
Public parks and playgrounds	Public parks and playgrounds
Retail space available		Negative view of community regarding crime and safety
Ringling College students with creative ideas		Produce at Walmart not a good value (price, quality)
School gardens		Segregated community
Schools		Southern food traditions
Small community		Time
Social gatherings centered around food		Unemployment
Social services in Newtown
Summer food program
Thoroughfares

Will of people to make changes

www.facebook.com	/NorthSarasotaFoodSummit

Duanasad Calutiana		Non-
Proposed Solutions	Residents	Residents
RL Taylor Food Drop-Off & Classes	11	3
Utilize Wasted Food	9	1
Use city lots for gardens	8	2
Container gardening	8	0
Community Garden Toolkit	7	0
Volunteers educating on healthy eating	6	0
Pop-Up Farmers Market	6	5
Veggie Mobile	4	5
Farmers Markets Accepting EBT	4	4
Children-focused community gardens	4	3
Food Sampling in Schools	3	1
Churches Promote Initiatives and Gardening	3	0
Rooftop Gardens	2	0
New College Community Garden	2	0
Weekly notification	1	0
Teaching Nutrition Visually	1	0
Gardening Workshops	1	0
Intergenerational education & partnering	1	2
Healthy Food Trucks	0	2
Healthy Café	0	1

8 7 2

2

2

Mon

North Sarasota Food Summit Summary

The North Sarasota Food Summit took place on May 22nd, 2013. More than 60 people attended. The goals of the food summit were to deepen understanding of the importance of access to healthy foods; connect key food system stakeholders; and highlight opportunities to advance strategies to improve access to healthy foods. This summary captures the assets, barriers, and proposed solutions as identified by participants.

